

Institutional Analysis and Development Framework

Institutional Analysis and Development Framework

- Focuses on how institutions (rules, norms, and strategies) govern collective action, especially in managing common pool resources.
- Key Components
 - Where individuals interact, make decisions, and influence outcomes.
 - Individuals/groups with varied objectives and levels of control.
 - Operational (day-to-day decisions), Collective-Choice (institutional rules), and Constitutional (fundamental rules).